All transfers are contingent upon school board approval.

Any violation of school rules and district policy by the student and/or parent(s) can result in a transfer being revoked.

Providing inaccurate information can result in the transfer being revoked.

Problems with discipline, attendance, tardies and/or academics can result in the transfer being revoked.

Transportation to an out-of-attendance zone school is the responsibility of the parent and will not be provided by the Edgefield County School District.
